Method:

Spread both sides of each bread slice with 4 tablespoons mayonnaise. Toast bread in 2 batches over medium heat, about 5 minutes, turning once halfway through cooking. Transfer to cooling rack.

Spread 4 slices of bread with remaining mayonnaise and mustard.

To build sandwiches, arrange 1 lettuce leaf on 1 piece of mayo-mustard-spread toast.

Top with chicken, then toast, then lettuce, bacon, and tomatoes. Season tomatoes with salt and pepper.

Top with remaining slices of bread and secure each with 4 toothpicks. Cut each sandwich in quarters.

Serve.
